SPECIAL SEARCHING FOR YOUR FAMILY

The INDEX to Volumes I, II, and III contains only a small part of our collection of names of early settlers in New York State, and we are constantly searching for more.

Write us, if you do not find what you want.

AN EXPLANATION OF THE INDEX

Knowledge acquired from copying these records has been combined with that derived from searching publications, and an attempt made to present this INDEX in the most useful form.

The names, although copied from original manuscripts, are not signatures, and the spelling is varied for the same family. Different spellings of a family name have also been found on the same lot in cemeteries. Because of these variations, names with similar pronunciations, but different spellings, have been grouped under the most common spelling, in order that you will not overlook a single reference. For this reason the spelling in the INDEX is not always identical with the record in the magazine. LOOK FOR EVERY CONCEIVABLE SPELLING.

An effort has been made to list every family name that was mentioned, without increasing the size and cost of the INDEX.

For example: B-102 Little, Phebe (Rudgers).

Listed in the INDEX as — Little, Phebe; Rudgers, Phebe.

Wives were listed under maiden and married names, when the husband was not recorded.

B-127 Ashley, Louise Rackett, m Charles E. Upton.

Listed as Upton, Charles; Ashley, Louise; Rackett, Louise.

Wives recorded with husbands are listed under maiden names.

B-134 Bunnel, Amasa Webster. Listed as Bunnel, Amasa; Webster, Amasa.

The second name may be a clue in the Webster family.

Baptisms, C-149 Cuyler, John and Mary Vernor—Elizabeth TenBroeck, John. Listed Cuyler, John*; Vernor, Mary; TenBroeck, Elizabeth.

If this family had been listed as Cuyler only, the searcher would not have known there was a Vernor nor TenBroeck reference. It will be found that all christian names are not repeated, connected with different surnames, but every person is listed at least once in the INDEX in such an arrangement as would best preserve family names.

* — following the page number, indicates the name appeared more than once on that page.

A - B - C represent Volumes I, II, and III, respectively.

Names which appeared in the "Mail Box" were indexed according to family name only, and are listed separately at the end of the general index. Will you read these family names, and try to help some one?

Paper used in INDEX is different from magazine in order that you may turn to it quickly.
